

Society Election 2024: Candidate Roadmap

1

20 November 2023

Come along to our initial information event in Lincoln to learn more about Lincolnshire Co-op and the role of a director.

2

8 January 2024

Candidate portal opens, you can express your interest and start your application for the 2024 election.

3

10 February 2024

Closing date for expressing your interest in becoming a director of the Society to enter the recruitment process for our 2024 election.

4

20 February 2024

Join us at our information event in Lincoln and find out more about the role of a director and standing for election.

5

9 March 2024

Closing date for receipt of online candidate nomination form and supporting documents.

10

July 2024

Determination of Board committee memberships and if required, you'll be offered media training to support you in your new role.

9

June 2024

If elected, you'll receive a letter of appointment, a copy of our Code of Conduct for Directors and paperwork to complete. You'll start your induction & attend your first Board meeting.

8

7 May - 2 Jun 2024

Elections period. Member postal and email mailings sent, and campaign materials live.

Results will be announced at our Half Yearly Meeting on 8th June 2024.

7

22 April 2024

Photography & filming drop-in sessions for election publicity materials for all candidates progressing to ballot.

6

25 - 29 March 2024

Externally facilitated candidate interviews will take place.

Interview outcome provided to candidates prior to 22 April 2024.