The Lincolnshire Co-op Funeral Plan is not loaded with hidden charges or commission fees like many plans, and the terms and conditions are made simple giving you absolute peace of mind. The Lincolnshire Co-op Funeral Plan guarantees that once you have paid, there will be no further charges regardless of when the funeral takes place. Many other plan providers require additional payment at the time of the funeral.

There may be extra costs at the time of your funeral for items not included in your plan such as flowers; order of service; extra limousines; newspaper notices or interment of ashes. We'll help arrange these services and they will need to be paid for in full at the time of the funeral. However, if requested, these services can be included and paid for at the time of taking out a plan, with the exception of our simple plan.
